

FREE FAMILY FUN DAY AT SARDI AQUATIC SCIENCES.

The South Australian Research and Development Institute (SARDI) Aquatic Sciences division will open its doors to the general public on Sunday 19 November 2017.

Visitors will be welcome from 10am- 4pm at 2 Hamra Avenue, West Beach (located next to West Beach Mini Golf).

Visitors of all ages will have the opportunity to tour the purpose-built marine and freshwater research facility, including observing the laboratories and research vessels and equipment, watching science presentations, exploring live fish displays and enjoying the interactive touch tanks.

Find out how science supports South Australia's economy and helps keep our oceans and rivers healthy.

Put on your 'science' hat and check out the following fun activities:

- Chat to SARDI scientists about their innovative research
- Experience world-class seafood cooking demonstrations by chef and Premium Food and Wine Ambassador Simon Bryant
- See where all the action happens with a tour of the laboratories
- Help name SARDI's new offshore research vessel
- Watch science presentations
- Explore live fish and aquaculture displays
- Enjoy the interactive touch tanks
- Learn about South Australia's fishing and aquaculture industries, speak to a fisher, and hear about how we manage our natural aquatic resources
- Taste great food and experience local wines at a popup event

PACIFIC SCHOOL GAMES

In keeping with Adelaide Shores commitment to grassroots sport, we will be providing the venue for the softball, touch football and golf components of the Pacific School Games, from Sunday 3 December to Saturday 9 December.

Touch Football and softball will be held on Barratt Reserves and Diamond Sports, while golf will be hosted by the Adelaide Shores Golf Club.

Along with this, both the Caravan Park and the Resort are accommodating participants and their families during this week.

During this event, there will be a large number of children and spectators utilising the Reserves, but every effort will be made to reduce noise and road disruptions.

Due to requirements of the event, Barratt Reserves will be fenced to ensure security all participants. This fencing will occur on Thursday 30 November 2017.

The Pacific School Games provides opportunities for around 4000 school-aged students from across Australia to participate in eleven different sports at the highest level.

ADELAIDE BITE
