

COUNCIL MEMBERS GIFTS AND BENEFITS REGISTER (from 1 September 2013)

The Code of Conduct for Council Members has been gazetted and published by the Minister for State/Local Government Relations for the purposes of Section 63(1) of the Local Government Act 1999 and requires Council Members to record Gifts and Benefits received as defined in Section 3.7 of the Code.

Gifts and Benefits

3.7 Council members must not:

- 3.7.1 Seek gifts or benefits of any kind;
- 3.7.2 Accept any gift or benefit that may create a sense of obligation on their part or may be perceived to be intended or likely to influence them in carrying out their public duty;
- 3.7.3 Accept any gift or benefit from any person who is in, or who seeks to be in, any contractual relationship with the council.

3.8 Notwithstanding code 3.7, Council members may accept campaign donations as provided for in the Local Government (Elections) Act 1999.

3.9 Notwithstanding code 3.7.3, Council members may accept hospitality provided in the context of performing their duties, including:

3.9.1 Free or subsidised meals, beverages or refreshments of reasonable value provided in conjunction with:

- 3.9.1.2 Council work related events such as training, education sessions workshops and conferences;
- 3.9.1.3 Council functions or events;
- 3.9.1.4 Social functions organised by groups such as Council committees and community organisations;

3.9.2 Invitations to, and attendance at, local social, cultural or sporting events.

3.10 Where Council members receive a gift or benefit of more than a value published in the Government Gazette by the Minister from time to time, details of each gift must be recorded within a gifts and benefits register maintained and updated quarterly by the Council's Chief Executive Officer. This register must be made available for inspection at the principal office of the Council and on the Council website.

Cr Oanh Nguyen	1/02/2016	Asian United Football Club	Gift Bag	Returned		I had received a bag as a gift from the wife of Tai Vo - President of the Asian United Football Club, over the years I just know her as the wife of Mr Tai Vo and later found out that she is also Secretary of this club. The Club had over the years received Discretionary Ward Allowances from Council (Woodville Ward). Prior to the end of last term of Council, she had given me a bag which she insisted that it was from her personally, anyway I did not manage to not accept it. I took it home and seek advices of what to do it - in the end it was returned to her. I got emotional in explaining her kind thoughts which is really appreciated and thanked her though I could not accept the gift and asked for her to understand.
