

Tell us a little about your life now? _____

By submitting this information I grant the City of Charles Sturt permission to use my story in whole, or in part, in a range of local history products and formats including exhibitions, on the internet, in multimedia productions, publications, broadcasts and educational programs. I understand that this may involve places, dates and names but my contact details will not be publicised. This information may also be provided to the University of Adelaide and the South Australian Migration Museum as part of the 'Hostel Stories' research project of which the City of Charles Sturt is a project partner. I understand that anyone else wanting to edit, reproduce, publish (including electronic/digital) broadcast, transmit, perform or adapt this information during my lifetime must get my written permission first, unless reasonable attempts to contact me are unsuccessful.
