

Example of Site Plans

The plan must identify the length of the business frontage, location of the goods, the width of the pedestrian, goods and kerb sections of the footpath and all other details (street furniture or parking zones) that will enable the application to be assessed against the layout criteria.

NOT TO SCALE