General description of the lands

Bowden Brompton Community Centre (19 on Green) is a communal meeting facility, as shown in the 'Site Map' of this Community Land Management Plan. The Centre and land parcel (except for any part of the land, where relevant, that is subject to any lease/licence as granted by Council in accordance with Section 202 of the Local Government Act) is categorised as Neighbourhood Open Space and Community in the Types and Hierarchy explained in Community Land Management Plans – An introduction.

Purpose for which the land is held

The Council holds this land for the primary purpose of providing a community meeting area and facilities, and services from the facilities, for community use and spaces that may be utilised from time to time for complementary business purposes. The Council also holds this land for secondary purposes associated with addressing environmental, urban design and heritage purposes (in no particular order of precedence).

Lease or Licence Permissions

Council may grant or renew leases and/or licences over any part or parts of the land.

Any lease or licence granted or proposed to be granted must be consistent with the uses and purposes for which the Council holds the Centre, and its objectives for the Centre, as outlined in this Community Land Management Plan. They may be issued to various recreation, business, social or community clubs or groups for the use of buildings or any other open space within the Centre whose activities cater for the local or broader community.

The Council may grant leases and licences of any length, and on any terms, to organisations established for recreation, social and/or community purposes over any land and/or buildings to which this Community Land Management Plan relates.

Council may issue a permit to allow access over the land or to allow for an activity of a short-term nature. Uses of land prohibited by Council by laws without approval may be approved in relation the Reserve.

Council may issue an authorisation for short term commercial activities under Section 200 of the Local Government Act 1999. Authorised activities must be consistent with the purposes for which the Community Centre is held. Approvals may be given on conditions the Council considers appropriate.

An example of activities Council considers relevant to the purposes of the Community Centre when considering lease, licence, authorisation or permit requests are (without limitation)

- Community activities and/or services catering to all ages and cultural groups ie scouts, girl guides, art and craft pursuits, child play groups, historical and cultural groups etc.
- Fundraising, educational and community awareness events that support cultural diversity, health, fitness and general community wellbeing.
- Activities of a passive nature that promotes a healthy active lifestyle ie tai chi, yoga, indoor fitness training groups.
- Small family celebratory events ie birthday, wedding etc.

Permits, licences or easements may be granted by Council to public service provider authorities, within delegations of a relevant Act, for the purposes of provision of electricity, gas, water, internet and telecommunications services (except for above ground telecommunications towers).

Management Objectives for the land (in on particular order of precedence)

- To provide a community centre with open space areas and facilities, and services from those areas and facilities, that encourage participation in, and facilitates, recreational, cultural and community pursuits and to seek to maximise the use of the land and facilities for these purposes.
- To provide the community opportunities for diverse recreational, educational, social, cultural and community-based activities and events such as, but not limited to, artistic pursuits, child play groups, youth activities, community information sessions, dance and theatrical pursuits, gatherings etc.
- To facilitate occupation of part of the land by community groups for community purposes as set out in any licence/lease granted by the Council.
- To facilitate occupation of part of the land by way of permit or the like to individuals, groups or business for recreational, educational, cultural and community activities.
- To address specific heritage and urban design objectives.

Proposal for managing the land

The management of Bowden Brompton Community Centre (19 on Green) is to be consistent with the descriptions and guiding principles for use and development identified in Neighbourhood Open Space Hierarchy and Community Open Space Types described in Community Land Management Plans - An introduction.
