Expressions of Interest – Food Vending
Riverbank Christmas Display - Adam Street, Hindmarsh

The Riverbank Christmas Display is a popular community event, attracting thousands of visitors each year from all over the State. The viewing area is located at the Adam Street Reserve in Hindmarsh, with the event operating ideally between 21 November 2026 to 2 January 2027 (subject to change).

The City of Charles Sturt is currently calling for expression of interest from interested businesses/organisations wishing to manage the food vending for this event.

All applications must agree to the conditions specified by Council (attached) and include all relevant information requested. A permit will be issued to the successful applicant for the purpose of food vending for the duration of the 2026 Christmas season.

Expressions of interest must include the following in their application:

- The proposed fee that they are prepared to pay to Council in order to acquire a permit to operate the food vending;
- Public Liability Insurance (minimum $20,000,000);
- Site plan showing placements and approximate size of structures;
- A detailed risk management plan;

Please mark your expressions of interest application “Confidential” and send to:
