

BELLA LOVES A BREAK

Bella loves to take breaks from play and rest. Dogs need up to 16 hours of sleep per day! She listens to her body and goes to bed when she feels it's time to rest. Her break time is perfect for practicing quiet activities like colouring, reading or watching TV. Bella can feel a bit startled if she's woken up suddenly from sleep.

CHARLIE LOVES CHEST PATS

Charlie enjoys making new friends, though sometimes they might feel too shy or overly excited to say hello! The best way to say hello to Charlie is with a friendly wave from a distance. If they come closer, 3 gentle pats on the shoulder or chest are the best. Remember to pat then pause to see if Charlie wants more!

MAX LOVES MEALS

Max loves his food! Breakfast and dinner are his favourite times of day! Remember mealtime is not a good time for everyone to play. He might be worried about someone approaching his food. When Max is having a meal, be his best friend by letting him eat his meal in peace – it's a great time to watch TV!

MOLLY LOVES TO MOVE

Molly loves to play and go for a walk with friends. Her favourite game is to play tug with a rope or fetch a ball, but she needs short breaks to help keep calm. Molly prefers to pounce on the tug rope as it wriggles away from her on the ground. She loves it when she can win the game or if you swap the toy for a tasty treat.
